

Daniel Loeffler

Thank you for the opportunity to introduce myself to your company. I am presently seeking a position in sales of broadcast, CCTV or technology products interfacing at C-Level management within the North American or international marketplace.

Since 1993, I have been successfully establishing international sales channels for OEM, ODM, embedded/system integrators, distributors and VAR's for CCTV, digital compression, broadcast, network streaming, and IP video security products within the European, Asian-Pacific and North American marketplace.

I am available for relocation in North America and possess both United States and European citizenship. I will be also available for meetings from March 10th through April 21st in the United States and attending the ISC West 2008 and NAB 2008 show in Las Vegas in April.

Upon request, I will provide my CV/Resume for your internal information.

Sincerely,

Daniel Loeffler
